A newsletter for members and friends of Tampa branch of

American Association of University Women

President's Message

Welcome Ladies and gentleman,

Welcome to AAUW fall programs. Welcome Gail Boria from Knoxville, Tennessee.

October is traditionally has been associated with the harvest. We have harvested an exciting list of speakers. We will have Doris Weatherford who writes and lead conferences on women's issues. Dr. Susan McManus who is featured on the national news forums during the political season. Invite friends and family to these engaging programs. There will be some interesting trips planed for people and places Ulele (the IN-Place will be one of our trips. We have a lively, intelligent and engaging moments this fall and winter. Come one, come all.

A bit of Trivia, What is the origin of the name Ulele?

Irene Bembry

President, Tampa Branch.

The Yearbook

Since the death of Verna Gardener, who had done a wonderful job on our yearbooks for many years, several of us worked on the book you got in September. listing all our members. But we always have room for your friends. That's how we get great new members, . Please note that her daughter, Ingrid, who is a NYC graphic designer, did our cover! You will notice that it is a little shorter. Much of the national information that was removed is now available more currently on the Internet. If there are more corrections, email Sherry (me) Corrections Jacqui Vento. 973-3964 Anne Spinelli mustangannie@juno.com
